Each vendor operating at a farmer's market must supply a valid copy of a Retail Food License from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture or a local Eating and Drinking or Retail Outlet License, Liability Insurance statement, and if applicable, a copy of their Certified Food Manger Certificate, Vehicle Registration and Insurance, and PA Sales Tax License. This application must be filled out and returned to the Neighborhood and Community Services Department, Division of Health and Food Safety with a copy of a valid license. If a valid license is not held, please contact the Division of Health and Food Safety for the necessary procedures to obtain proper licensing. The only exemption from licensing is raw agricultural commodities (produce, flowers, plants).

If you have any questions regarding licensing procedures, please contact the Neighborhood and Community Services Department, Division of Health and Food Safety at (814) 234-7191. More information on the regulations for Farmer's Markets is available at eatsafepa.com.
